

Welcome to Historic St. Peter's Catholic Cemetery

Established 1883

Planning for the end of life on earth is an expression of the acceptance, trust and faith in the resurrection. Our ministry is committed to assisting you. We offer sacred burial space, counsel for meaningful funerals, and aftercare support. Planning provides peace of mind, creates something beautiful for your family , and avoids financial and mental stress.

We are pleased to offer a range of new in-ground cremation lots as marked on this map in addition to available niches in the St. Peter's Columbarium. Please speak to a member of our team to guide you on availability, pricing and the process to set aside your sacred space. We'd also be pleased to speak to you by phone at 604-531-2141 or in person at our administration office located at 15694-32nd Avenue in Surrey.

We look forward to seeing you,

1 - MAIN ENTRANCE

150 Richmond Street, New Westminster BC

2 - ST. PETER'S COLUMBARIUM

At the center of the cemetery stands a remarkable depiction of St. Peter, a symbol of faith and guidance. With its elegant architecture, St. Peter's Columbarium offers a serene environment for the eternal preservation of cremated remains.

Niches available for purchase.

3 - LT. COLONEL DOHERTY (3-23-A)

Lt. Col. Charles Edward Doherty's monument stands out for its size and inscription, erected by his fellow workers from Provincial Mental Hospitals. He had a distinguished career in psychiatric medicine, served in World War I, and overcame unique challenges raising a family within the mental institution.

4 - SR. JOSEPH NAPOLEON (5-17-A)

Florentine Aubin, known as Sister Joseph Napoléon, joined the Sisters of Providence in Montreal. She served in Fairbanks, Alaska, and later joined St. Mary's Hospital in New Westminster. She was a model of humility and care, working tirelessly to care for those affected by the 1918 Spanish Flu pandemic, but tragically succumbed to the illness at the end of World War I.

5 - SISTERS OF PROVIDENCE / SR. ETHELBERT (5-39-B)

Sister Ethelbert nursed at St. Mary's Hospital in New Westminster, raising funds through successful begging tours. Sadly, she fell ill during a tour in the Kootenays and passed away at the age of 35. Mount Ethelbert was named in her honor, and she was the first religious Sister to be interred in St. Peter's Cemetery.

6 - IN-GROUND CREMATION LOTS AVAILABLE

Available for purchase.

7 - MONSIGNOR FORGET (12-43-B)

Louis Forget, originally from Normandy, France, served as a pastor at St. Patrick's parish in Vancouver from 1917 until his passing in 1964. He made significant contributions, including church repairs, establishing schools, and encouraging numerous vocations to the priesthood and sisterhoods.

8 - SALLY GRIBBLE (28-13-A, B)

Sally Gribble established the first Canadian chapter of Mothers Against Drunk Drivers (MADD) following the devastating loss of her son in a drunk driving accident. Her dedicated efforts resulted in significant growth, with MADD Canada now comprising over 200 chapters and numerous volunteers across the country.

9 - SISTERS OF THE SACRED HEART
(17 Lots 4, 5, 6, 7, 47, 48)

The Sisters of the Sacred Heart were a dedicated group of educators, establishing a convent in Vancouver in 1911. After their departure in 1979, the Convent of the Sacred Heart property in Point Grey was sold to St. George's boys' school.
